

Treat
PILES
early
with trusted
HADENSA
ointment
- avoid surgery!

Polio vaccine unit in City likely

KAKINADA, Jan. 4 (PTI)

The Andhra Pradesh Health Minister Mr. K. Rajamulu, today indicated the possibility of opening a small unit of polio vaccine at Hyderabad with foreign collaboration.

Declaring open the second medical health and family planning exhibition here he said that the Central Government had assured financial assistance to the proposed polio vaccine unit.

He said the child mortality in the rural areas had come down considerably following the various steps taken under child care schemes.

The exhibition has been organised at the Ranjanya Medical College here.

3 committed to sessions on murder charge

By a staff reporter

HYDERABAD, Jan. 4. How a young man lost his life recently while trying to rescue his brother from being attacked and his two sisters from being molested, came to light here today.

On that fateful day, the telephone rang listlessly in the Musheerabad Police Station after midnight. The Sub-Inspector who picked up the phone was told by a frantic officer that his neighbour was attacked by three persons and that two of the assailants including a Sardarji bolted away on a scooter, which proceeded towards Musheerabad side.

The Sub-Inspector alerted the sentry constable and both came out of the police station and saw a scooter with two riders including a Sardarji. The scooter was stopped and both the riders were detained. Some persons in the taxi brought an injured man to the police station. The injured person allegedly identified his assailants.

The two scooter riders were arrested. Another person, an accomplice of the two arrested persons, was also taken into custody.

The injured man was sent to the Osmania Hospital where he succumbed to the injuries.

This incident occurred on the intervening night of November 12/13 last in Bapunagar locality near Chikkadpally here in the city.

The three arrested persons were charged with the alleged murder. Two of them were also charged with the alleged offence of outraging the modesty of the two sisters of the deceased person.

These facts were narrated in the charge-sheet filed against the three accused before the VI Metropolitan Magistrate who committed the case for trial to the Sessions Court on December 31, 1975.

The investigation of the case was conducted by Mr. A. Madhava Rao, Inspector Team-I of the City Crime Branch, assisted by Mr. Fida Hussain and Mr. Ram Reddy, Sub-Inspectors, under the supervision of Mr. S. N. A. Dorai, Assistant Commissioner of Police (Crimes-I).

Lots drawn for Housing Board
houses

By a staff reporter

HYDERABAD, Jan. 4. Andhra Pradesh Housing Board has drawn the lots here today for the allotment of houses constructed by them at Barkatpura, Saidabad, Malakpet, Santoshnagar and Sanjivreddynagar notified during October last.

This time the response for Housing Board houses from the public was poor when compared with the tremendous response received for the houses at Yousufguda, for which lots had been drawn in October last. This time 1444 applications have been received for 99 houses in all as against over 24,000 applications received for 535 houses last time.

Mr. M. Lokanadham, Chairman of the Housing Board, conducted the drawal of lots for houses in presence of the applicants.

HYDERABAD, Jan. 4.

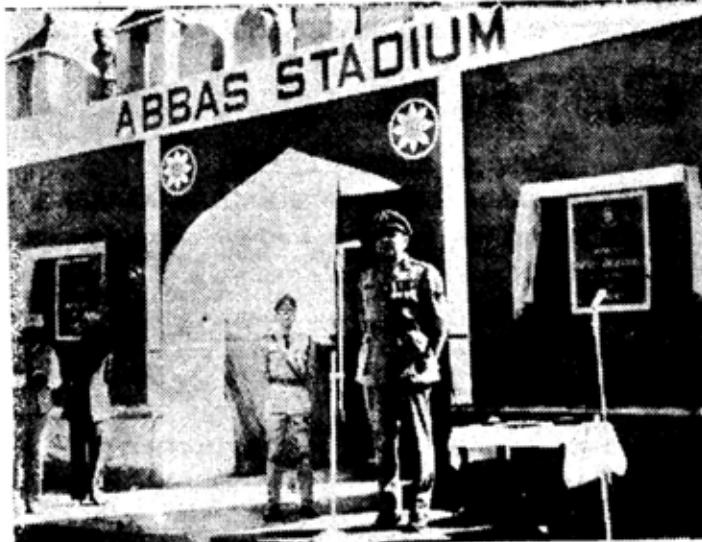

Mr. Syed Akhtar Abbas, IPS, Inspector-General of Police, S.I. CRPF, Hyderabad, who retired on December 31, was born on January 1, 1918 in the district of Azamgarh, Uttar Pradesh.

After completing his education at Aligarh Muslim University he joined the UP Police as Deputy Superintendent of Police in March 1940.

After completing his training at Police Training College, Mysore, and remaining posted in Deputy Superintendent of Police and Assistant Superintendent of SAC in various districts units, he was specially selected for newly-created post of Adjutant cum-Assistant Principal at PTC Moradabad in June 1947. He was later promoted to the rank of Superintendent of Police and the post he was holding was upgraded to that of Vice-Principal. He continued in that capacity for about three years and after his departure, the post was downgraded to that of Adjutant.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In re-

Mr. S. A. Abbas speaking at the farewell parade.

MERITORIOUS RECORD OF S.A. ABBAS

HYDERABAD, Jan. 4. Mr. Syed Akhtar Abbas, IPS, Inspector-General of Police, S.I. CRPF, Hyderabad, who retired on December 31, was born on January 1, 1918 in the district of Azamgarh, Uttar Pradesh.

After completing his education at Aligarh Muslim University he joined the UP Police as Deputy Superintendent of Police in March 1940.

After completing his training at Police Training College, Mysore, and remaining posted in Deputy Superintendent of Police and Assistant Superintendent of SAC in various districts units, he was specially selected for newly-created post of Adjutant cum-Assistant Principal at PTC Moradabad in June 1947. He was later promoted to the rank of Superintendent of Police and the post he was holding was upgraded to that of Vice-Principal. He continued in that capacity for about three years and after his departure, the post was downgraded to that of Adjutant.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, he was awarded the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for distinguished services (the highest medal for a Police Officer) on the Independence Day of 1972.

In December 1973, he was promoted to IGP S/I, CRPF, Calcutta. In July 1974, he was transferred to Hyderabad in the same capacity and continued here till the date of his retirement on superannuation.

Mr. Abbas has been interested in games and sports from the very early age. When he was a student of Intermediate Second Year, he represented the Faizabad Division Schools and Colleges Union in 1934.

While in Allahabad University he regularly played for the University Cricket team. After joining the Police, he not only represented the UP Police for number of years, but also played for various Districts in Inter-District and All India Tournaments. As Honorary Secretary of the UP Police Sports Control Board for more than 4 years, he not only organised games and sports for the police, but also represented UP Police on the body of various organisations. He is still keenly interested in games and regularly plays Tennis Badminton. He is a qualified official of the Amateur Athletic Federation of India and a First Class Hockey umpire.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, he was awarded the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for distinguished services (the highest medal for a Police Officer) on the Independence Day of 1972.

In December 1973, he was promoted to IGP S/I, CRPF, Calcutta. In July 1974, he was transferred to Hyderabad in the same capacity and continued here till the date of his retirement on superannuation.

Mr. Abbas has been interested in games and sports from the very early age. When he was a student of Intermediate Second Year, he represented the Faizabad Division Schools and Colleges Union in 1934.

While in Allahabad University he regularly played for the University Cricket team. After joining the Police, he not only represented the UP Police for number of years, but also played for various Districts in Inter-District and All India Tournaments. As Honorary Secretary of the UP Police Sports Control Board for more than 4 years, he not only organised games and sports for the police, but also represented UP Police on the body of various organisations.

He is still keenly interested in games and regularly plays Tennis Badminton. He is a qualified official of the Amateur Athletic Federation of India and a First Class Hockey umpire.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, he was awarded the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for distinguished services (the highest medal for a Police Officer) on the Independence Day of 1972.

In December 1973, he was promoted to IGP S/I, CRPF, Calcutta. In July 1974, he was transferred to Hyderabad in the same capacity and continued here till the date of his retirement on superannuation.

Mr. Abbas has been interested in games and sports from the very early age. When he was a student of Intermediate Second Year, he represented the Faizabad Division Schools and Colleges Union in 1934.

While in Allahabad University he regularly played for the University Cricket team. After joining the Police, he not only represented the UP Police for number of years, but also played for various Districts in Inter-District and All India Tournaments. As Honorary Secretary of the UP Police Sports Control Board for more than 4 years, he not only organised games and sports for the police, but also represented UP Police on the body of various organisations.

He is still keenly interested in games and regularly plays Tennis Badminton. He is a qualified official of the Amateur Athletic Federation of India and a First Class Hockey umpire.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, he was awarded the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for distinguished services (the highest medal for a Police Officer) on the Independence Day of 1972.

In December 1973, he was promoted to IGP S/I, CRPF, Calcutta. In July 1974, he was transferred to Hyderabad in the same capacity and continued here till the date of his retirement on superannuation.

Mr. Abbas has been interested in games and sports from the very early age. When he was a student of Intermediate Second Year, he represented the Faizabad Division Schools and Colleges Union in 1934.

While in Allahabad University he regularly played for the University Cricket team. After joining the Police, he not only represented the UP Police for number of years, but also played for various Districts in Inter-District and All India Tournaments. As Honorary Secretary of the UP Police Sports Control Board for more than 4 years, he not only organised games and sports for the police, but also represented UP Police on the body of various organisations.

He is still keenly interested in games and regularly plays Tennis Badminton. He is a qualified official of the Amateur Athletic Federation of India and a First Class Hockey umpire.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, he was awarded the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for distinguished services (the highest medal for a Police Officer) on the Independence Day of 1972.

In December 1973, he was promoted to IGP S/I, CRPF, Calcutta. In July 1974, he was transferred to Hyderabad in the same capacity and continued here till the date of his retirement on superannuation.

Mr. Abbas has been interested in games and sports from the very early age. When he was a student of Intermediate Second Year, he represented the Faizabad Division Schools and Colleges Union in 1934.

While in Allahabad University he regularly played for the University Cricket team. After joining the Police, he not only represented the UP Police for number of years, but also played for various Districts in Inter-District and All India Tournaments. As Honorary Secretary of the UP Police Sports Control Board for more than 4 years, he not only organised games and sports for the police, but also represented UP Police on the body of various organisations.

He is still keenly interested in games and regularly plays Tennis Badminton. He is a qualified official of the Amateur Athletic Federation of India and a First Class Hockey umpire.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, he was awarded the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for distinguished services (the highest medal for a Police Officer) on the Independence Day of 1972.

In December 1973, he was promoted to IGP S/I, CRPF, Calcutta. In July 1974, he was transferred to Hyderabad in the same capacity and continued here till the date of his retirement on superannuation.

Mr. Abbas has been interested in games and sports from the very early age. When he was a student of Intermediate Second Year, he represented the Faizabad Division Schools and Colleges Union in 1934.

While in Allahabad University he regularly played for the University Cricket team. After joining the Police, he not only represented the UP Police for number of years, but also played for various Districts in Inter-District and All India Tournaments. As Honorary Secretary of the UP Police Sports Control Board for more than 4 years, he not only organised games and sports for the police, but also represented UP Police on the body of various organisations.

He is still keenly interested in games and regularly plays Tennis Badminton. He is a qualified official of the Amateur Athletic Federation of India and a First Class Hockey umpire.

Having held charge with distinction of criminally notorious and important districts like Fatehpur, Faridkot and Najital and commanding a couple of PAC Battalions, he was appointed to the prestigious post of Commandant, II BN, PAC and Training Centre, Sitapur in June 1961.

He continued there for more than four years until August 1966. On Republic Day 1967, he was awarded the Police Medal for his meritorious services and was later given another important posting as AIG Railways in Allahabad. A year later he was promoted to the rank of DIG and was posted to Gorakhpur in August 1968. He had hardly remained at Gorakhpur for eight months when he was transferred to Agra to combat the dengue menace, which had assumed alarming proportions. Within a few months of his arrival, two desperate gangs of decoits, who had created terror not only in the districts of Agra and Mathura, but also in Bharatpur of Rajasthan, were completely liquidated. While continuing in Agra, he was given the additional charge of DIG Meerut in February 1970 and was ultimately transferred to Meerut in April 1970. About two years later he was transferred and posted as DIG PAC UP, Lucknow in February 1970. In